ABOUT ISTD

The Indian Society for Training & Development (ISTD), established in April 1970, is a national level professional & non-profit society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860. It has a large membership of individuals and institutions involved in the area of training and development of Human Resource from Government, Public and Private Sector Organization & Enterprises; Educational and Training Institutions and other Professional Bodies.

The Society is affiliated to the International Federation of Training and Development Organizations (IFTDO), USA and Asian Regional Training and Development Organizations (ARTDO), Manila.

ISTD Organizes Training Programs, all over the country both at Chapter and National Levels. The Programs covered selected areas of HRD with special emphasis on Training of Trainers, Training Goals & Objectives and Training Tools & Technologies. A very large number of Public and Private Sector Organizations, participate in these programs.

ISTD has been designated as the National Nodal Agency to 'Testing and Certification' of Skilled Workers in the organized and unorganized sectors.

ABOUT NHRDN

The National HRD Network is the National Apex body of professionals committed to promoting the HRD movement in the country and enhancing the capability of human resource professionals to compete globally and thereby creating value for society. Towards this end, National HRD Network is committed to the development of human resources through education, training, research and experience sharing. Established in 1986, NHRD is autonomous, not-for-profit professionally managed organization, playing a catalyst role in grooming Leaders for Tomorrow. It has 12,500 members representing, Multinationals, Public & Private organizations including Government, MSME & NGOs spread across 30 chapters in India and serves as a reference point for HR Professionals in Indian Industry.

The NHRD Network is all about tapping unexplored human potential. The anthropocentric logo represents the idea that we help complete the missing pieces in any HR practitioner's life, be it professional or personal. The jigsaw piece represents a single individual, because it is the individual who has the power to change oneself. Only he/she can complete the circle of life. The Typography deployed for the NHRDN logo is the font "Arial Narrow". This is a more contemporary, sans-serif font which is considered versatile, and interestingly carries more features of the Humanist classification amongst typeface characteristics, perhaps aptly reflecting the origin of the HRD function which has its roots in humanism.

As technological innovations become ever more rapid, revolutions could ultimately follow one another in quick succession over the next 10 years and beyond. Whereas the first three industrial revolutions took decades to play out, today's revolutions last only as long as it takes for industry-wide implementation to complete itself. Noting the speed of these developments, it is only natural that talk of a fifth revolution would quickly follow the fourth.

Industry 5.0 is the revolution in which man and machine reconcile and find ways to work together to improve the means and efficiency of production.

The greatest advances predicted of Industry 5.0 involve the interaction of human intelligence and cognitive computing.

Beyond the soft skills required, technical skills will also be an issue. Engaging with these and the many other challenges and opportunities Industry 5.0 invariably brings will require planning and preparation commensurate with each manufacturer's needs and expected outcomes. It's not a question of whether a manufacturer can benefit from its personnel working alongside robots, but how they can best leverage new technologies to drive optimal outcomes from human/machine interactions.
